

WHO IS ALLOWED IN THE POLLING PLACE ON ELECTION DAY

The following have the right to be in the polling station:

- Precinct Election Commission members;
- Election commission superior members/representatives;
- No more than one representative of the same electoral candidate registered with the relevant precinct election commission;
- Registered local observers (no more than one observer from the same local observer organization);
- Registered international observers (no more than two observers from the same international organization, who may be accompanied by an interpreter);
- Accredited media representatives (no more than two representatives of the same media outlet).

Attention!

- All persons allowed to be present in the polling place must wear a badge indicating their identity and status.
- The representative of the electoral candidate (party running in the elections/initiative group) represents the electoral candidate only with the election commission in which he/she is registered.

GEORGIAN
PUBLIC BROADCASTER